CUT IT SHORT.

The Rain Yesterday Afternoon Inconvenienced People

WHO WENT OUT TO THE PARKS.

At Wheeling Park the First Band Concert of the season was given. A large crowd went out in the early afternoon. The season at Mozart Park to open next Sunday. The improvements at this resort—The season's attractions.

The sun opened business rather early yesterday morning, and encouraged the mercury in the thermometer to excel its ambitious climb of Saturday, when the weather was hot enough in all conscience. Towards noon yesterday, the eighty-five degree mark was passed, and there was an almost cloudless sky, only a few fleecy clouds skimming in the heavens, driven by very strong winds. The atmosphere was very pleasant notwithstanding the high markings on the bulb of the thermometer, and as a consequence, the lively stables did a good business in putting out teams for those who wished to get out into the country. The bicyclists also took advantage of the fine day, and, although the national road was extremely dusty, the highway was specked with the devotees of the wheel.

The 2 and 3 o'clock motors on the Elm Grove railway took out a large number of passengers, some dropping off at Greenwood and Mt. Calvary cemeteries, but the large proportion seeking the pleasant shades and the attractive music at Wheeling park.

But the day ended woefully for such promising features. Shortly after three o'clock a sharp shower drove the people at the park to the shelter of the Casino, where the concert of the Opera House was continued to the rhythmic accompaniment of the patter of the rain on the roof. The steady downpour continued, and the 6 o'clock motor pulled into the grounds to allow the belated visitors to reach the cars with very slight personal discomfort. Several gentlemen who drove out to the park in open top vehicles were compelled to stable them there and take the motor to the city.

While the visitors to the park were somewhat disappointed at the unexpected turn of the weather, they took the matter good-naturedly, remarking that what vegetation needed the rain, and what was good for vegetation ought to be agreeable for them. The programme offered by the Opera House band was one of unusual excellence and was thoroughly enjoyable by those present. The numbers were as follows:

PART I.
March—"Friendship".....Althouse
Overture—"Amazona".....Kiesler
Idyl—"The Mill in the Forest".....Hollenberg
Waltz—"Daughters of Love".....Bennet

PART II.
Grand American Fantasia—"Tone Pictures from the North and South".....Bendix
Selection—"The Christ Child".....Kerker
Gavotte—"Trixie".....Brooke

PART III.
Polonaise—"Onetta".....Barnhouse
Overture—"Break of Day".....Ripley
Masurka Russe—"La Carolina".....Ganne
Evening Serenade".....Elder
Waltz—"La Serenata".....D'Arcy Jaxone
March—"The Everett".....Hollstedt

On the 4 and 5 o'clock incoming motors, the baggage cars were crowded with wheels of cyclists who had been caught in the rain out on the pike. The rain converted the pike from a very dusty thoroughfare into a sea of mud, through which navigation a-wheel-back wasn't at all comfortable.

At 3 p. m. the Schnepf thermometer recorded 86 degrees, while six hours later it showed 60 degrees, a fall of 26 degrees.

AT MOZART PARK

The season at the Hill-Top Resort opens next Sunday—Summer Bowling Tournament Begins the Following Evening. Mozart Park was open to visitors yesterday, though the formal opening takes place next Sunday. Yesterday's opening was more to test the working of the incline machinery, and the test proved that everything is in first class condition.

Notwithstanding there was no band concert nor any special attractions, a fair crowd was hauled up the incline to the popular hill-top resort. The incline ride is a pleasure in itself, and its novelty and the beautiful view gained while ascending, will always prove a treat. All the arrangements for the opening next Sunday are not yet completed, but the season will be appropriately launched. By that time the improvements to the park will be completed, and everything ready to receive the large crowd expected. The band concert will be one of the features.

The roofs of all the buildings have been painted a bright red, and a force of painters will commence this morning to beautify the exterior of all the handsome buildings in the park. The walks and drives are in splendid condition, and will be further improved this week by new layers of tan-bark and gravel. The flower beds are in bloom, and the many fruit trees are loaded with white and pink blossoms. There is a luxuriant growth of grass all over the grounds, and considerable additions of plants and shrubbery have been made this spring.

The bowling alleys and swings were well patronized yesterday. The bowling tournament opens one week from tonight, with games between what are considered the two strongest teams, the Carroll Club and All Nations. In the meantime the alleys will be planed and put in good shape.

The Mozart Park Association has arranged for many attractions this summer, and so far ten picnics will be held on the hill-top. The first attraction will be the concert of the Chicago Marine band, the afternoon and evening of May 16. A vaudeville attraction is set for some time in June, and others will follow in due time. Each year finds Mozart park more beautiful, and it will be strange if it is not the resort of many pleasure seekers during the heated months.

Well Known Here.

The following from the Pittsburgh Commercial Gazette is of interest in Wheeling, the bride being a former Wheeling lady who has a large circle of friends.

Rev. S. S. Gibson, D.D., last evening officiated at the marriage of Samuel A. Myers and Annie J. Parcells, which was solemnized at the residence of Mr. J. J. Evans, Woodlawn avenue at 6 o'clock. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a number of friends and relatives. The decorations of the house were handsome, those of the supper table being especially elaborate. After the wedding supper Mr. and Mrs. Myers left for New York and other eastern cities. They will return to Pittsburgh and will make their home in Oakland. The bride, having made her home in this city for some years, Mr. Myers was formerly connected with the Pennsylvania Company, and is now Pittsburgh agent of the Union Pacific railroad. He is very popular in railroad circles.

BUCKINGHAM'S Dye for the Whiskers does its work thoroughly, coloring a unicolor brown or black, which, when dry, will neither rub, wash off, nor soil linen.

GENUINE DIAMONDS

And Solid Gold Watches Sold with

For the past week thousands of beautiful cans of various colors have been expressed and drays have been seen conveying them through the streets of this city. Hundreds of our citizens have been wondering what they were intended for and where they were going. It has now been definitely settled that they have been landed at 1033 Main street. It has also been learned that each of these cans contain a good retail value worth of choice blended tea, and that each can contains a prize of some kind, and that they are all to be sold at the uniform price of one dollar each. It seems that these prizes are to be distributed to purchasers for a limited time only, as a method of advertising and introducing a choice and entirely new blend of tea.

The prizes consist of an innumerable number of genuine diamonds, pearl, ruby and turquoise jewelry in solid gold setting, as well as solid gold watches, Elgin, Waltham and Swiss movements, both ladies' and gents' sizes, besides thousands of other articles too numerous to mention, all of which are to be distributed according to the amount sold to customers. This certainly is a most novel and expensive method of launching out into business, but we predict for the promoters of this new venture a great success. All of the specimens are in an elegant show case on the counter for inspection and all can see for themselves.

Amongst the purchasers who got valuable articles yesterday were Mrs. C. Miller, Dusch house, 1025 Market street, received a genuine cluster diamond finger ring, solid gold setting; James Dixon, horse dealer, West Liberty, received a gent's hunting case stem and set, full jeweled watch; Miss Ada Brocott, 21 Twentieth street, received a genuine solitaire diamond finger ring with her tea; Mrs. Ellen Murphy, canvasser, received a ladies' solid gold hunting case watch and a genuine diamond lace pin; James Keller, farmer, Greengrove, received a solid gold finger ring set with genuine diamonds; Wm. Marshall, engineer, received a set of genuine diamond eardrums and a beautiful enameled chatelaine watch; W. H. Whitecotton, Clinton, received a three stone genuine diamond ring with his purchase and Christine Miller received a genuine solitaire diamond ring set in solid gold; C. H. O'Donnell, superintendent Transfer Co., 1212 Market street, received a full jeweled hunting case Springfield watch and Mrs. G. A. Barnes, seamstress, got a genuine cluster diamond finger ring; W. M. McLaughlin received an American full jeweled hunting case watch; Eliza Smith, clerk, received a beautiful diamond, ruby and sapphire lace pin; W. B. Howell, proprietor of the Howell hotel, received a ladies' hunting case jeweled watch, and Arthur Bush (colored), porter McClure house, received a ladies' elegant hunting case watch; Charles Lemmons, butcher, 1715 Jacob street, received a gent's hunting case stem wind and set, full jeweled watch. The terms are: Single cans, $1; six for $5; 13 for $10. The number of the place where they can be had is 1033 Main street. The promoters of this new enterprise have rented the above store for one year and came to stay, but will give away the prizes for thirty days only, in order to advertise and give a boom to their business.

Congress now being in session will add additional interest to this city, already teeming with attractions.
